Serving the public through excellence and professionalism in medical practice

MEDIA RELEASE – January 15, 2014

Dr. WRIGHT, Timothy Grant

Vancouver, BC

When reporting this release, please provide the name and location of the physician in full in order to avoid confusion with any other physician who may have a similar name or initials.

VANCOUVER, BC: Dr. Timothy Grant Wright, a general practitioner, has admitted to unprofessional conduct by entering into a personal relationship with a patient and by breaching limits and conditions which were imposed on his practice, namely that he would not initiate or pursue social contact with female patients outside the formal medical office or hospital setting.

Following the issuance of a disciplinary citation, Dr. Wright submitted his irrevocable resignation to the College effective December 19, 2013 and his commitment never to re-apply for registration with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of British Columbia or any other jurisdiction.

The College of Physicians and Surgeons is the licensing and regulatory body for all physicians and surgeons in the province. Governed by provincial legislation, the College's role is to protect the public by establishing, monitoring and enforcing high standards of qualification and ethical practice across the province.
